William Kyle, Caledon East
great grandfather of Mrs Herb Kinsman (nee Judge)

His daughter was my grandmother and her name was Charlotte Brown.
(Brown's Church was built on the corner of their farm). He gave a part of his land for the church and a part for the Cemetery.

"My grandmother's name before her marriage to William Smith was Mary Kyle. Their children were:-

George
William
Sam
John
Elizabeth

(Wm or Jno?)
Grandfather Smith was born in Wales in 1803 and was married to Mary Kyle in Glasgow Scotland in 1827 and Grandfather Smith died in New York on his way over here in 1847. Then she married John Brown. (Grandfather Smith and John Brown were first cousins.
They had no children. Both of them had been married before. Grandma Smith - Brown (Mary Kyle) died in 1889.

John Smith was never in Caledon ② but was drowned. Geo. Smith died recently in California. One of Elizabeth Smith's brothers lived in Toronto for awhile. He was born in Sligo, Ireland and died in the West in 1915. I do not remember his name.
 The last one of my mother's brothers died 10 years ago in Ireland.

Elizabeth Smith (mother of Mrs.
 Herb Kinsman) married William
 Judge, born in 1832.

The Kyles and Stewarts were all English Church, originally, but they went to the Methodist Church as there was no English Church near them.
 There were all Conservatives.

From

Mrs. James Douglas (Judge File)

John Brown
Caledon E - Con 6 Lot 9

- m. Mary Kyle Smith, dau. William Kyle

Wm Kyle - came from Ireland.

Mary - married John Smith in Ireland and they came to New York.

Had four children all born in Ireland.
Mr. Smith died in New York, and after this her father came over and joined her and they emigrated to Caledon E because their cousin John Brown was already settled there on Caledon E Con 6 Lot 9.

Then she married John Brown.

Children of Mary Kyle and John Smith.

Samuel - went to Spokane Washington

George - went to California & died there.

H. E. - was Principal of Rose Ave School.

He was a Methodist minister first.
I think he preached in Mono, probably in the 70's or 80's.

Elizabeth - married Wm. Judge Jr.

John Smith was buried in Old Trinity Churchyard in New York City.

Mary buried in Brown's Cemetery.

all born in Sligo.

John Brown and Mary Kyle had one son Robert, who died young.

Mary Kyle had a sister Ann, who married John Stewart of Ireland and lived in Toronto.

26 November 1840.

Petition read before the Council.

Wm. Kyle, stating that he is the assignee of John Pliny Crysler and of Richard Loucks, Jr., purchaser at Sheriff's sale under the assessment act of part of Lot No. 17 & 18 1st con. of the Twp. of Winchester, and the E. $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 23, 2nd con. of the Twp. of Williamsburgh - that the Govt. patents have never issued, for the said lands, but they remain located, and praying under the circumstances he may receive a patent for the said lots.

The sale for Taxes is unquestionably illegal, and the Govt. cannot answer for the illegal acts of district officers who are themselves legally responsible. But to avoid any serious evil to petitioner who appears an innocent purchaser, it is recommended that if the lots be reported forfeited the same may be sold to him at the Minimum valuation.
